

In times of fake news, propaganda, conspiracy and counter-conspiracy – who and what can we still trust?

The media? ... or rather watch many different sources to form your own opinion?	The statistics? ... long live interpretation! Better to collect and analyze them yourself?	The government? ... do the regulations still make sense with so many mistakes and contradictions?
The tests? ... which one is actually 100% reliable?	The vaccination as a cure? ... and what else is in there?	The mask? ... Is it useful or is it an educational hygiene measure?

WE support each other, because together we are strong.

WE take part in specific actions and/or initiate our own.

WE are integrated into Swiss networks and groups.

WE know where to find independent information.

→ You don't have to be Swiss to join us. But it would help if you could read some German in the chats.

We clearly distance ourselves from extreme attitudes, conspiracy theories and calls for verbal or physical violence. Humanity, human dignity and mutual respect - regardless of political orientation - are of great concern to us.
